LONDONER LOSSES.

Takes Walky Two Minutes to Put Him Away.

Salem, Mass., Dec. 26.—Jimmy Walsh of Boston knocked out Harry Brodigan of London in two minutes and thirty seconds tonight. The men were to fight ten rounds for a decision, but the Londoner was far from being fast enough to stave off Walsh's rushes, and his end was in sight after the first minute had gone.

Brodigan stood high in the English pugilistic world.

VANDALS CUT BELT

Supposed to Be the Act of an Ex-Employee.

BELTS CUT AND BOLTS OUT

Sheriff Makes Trip to Warrenton and Gets a Clue to the Man Who Did the Job—Millmen Escape Without Injury.

The work of vandals at the Warrenton mill yesterday morning nearly caused a serious accident, and as it was the damage which resulted cost the mill owners a good deal of money and some delay.

Sheriff Tom Linville responded to a telephone call and went to Warrenton and examined the place. It was found that the big 14-inch belt had been cut nearly in two with a knife, and bolts from the bed plate of the engine were removed to allow the engine to pull itself from place.

No one was near the belt at the time it broke, and no one was hurt, though this was only a piece of good luck.

The crew that came on in the morning did not notice what was done, and their first intimation of it was when the big belt broke after making a few revolutions.

The sheriff has a good clue to the perpetrators of the act, and thinks he will arrest them in a day or two.

The mill owners say they can think of no one who would have a motive for damaging their property and endangering the lives of the employees in this manner, but the sheriff has learned that the engineer force has recently been changed and new men put in, and it may be that one of these men did the deed through motives of revenge. None, however, has made any attempt to leave town.

NAN IS GLOOMY.

She Passed Up an Elaborate Christmas Dinner.

New York, Dec. 26.—Nan Patterson passed a gloomy Christmas in the Tombs. Miss Patterson was sent an elaborate dinner by one of her counselors, but she ate little and wept continuously. She was somewhat composed later in the day by a long letter from her mother.

Church Movement.

tives each and of the other bodies officially represented at the Pittsburgh meeting the Dutch reformed, the Reformed Presbyterian general synod, the United Presbyterian and the Cumberland Presbyterian would have four representatives each, making in all a membership of 56 in the council. Other Presbyterian bodies believed likely to join include the Christian Reformed, the Associate Reformed synod of the south, the Reformed Presbyterian synod and the Welsh Calvinistic, which would add four representatives each to the council.

It is provided in the plan of federation that the council shall have power to deal with differences which may arise among the several churches of the federation in regard to matters within the jurisdiction of the council, which the constituted agencies of the churches concerned have been unable to settle and which shall, therefore, be referred by the supreme judicaries of the churches of the council.
